Conditions

The installation of plaques and the planting of trees as memorials in suitable areas is permitted on the following basis:

- All costs are met by the applicant.
- Plaques or trees will only be installed to commemorate historically important national or state events, or people who have made a significant contribution to the social, political and cultural life of Hobart subject to the approval of the Parks and Recreation Committee.
- The location is to be to the satisfaction of the Director of City Amenity with due regard to any management or master plans, the values of the park, bushland or reserve and needs of users.
- For plaque installations the application is to be supported by a minimum of three third parties, one of which must be a local community group (not applicable for commemorative trees).
- Where an organisation has previously installed a plaque commemorating a significant milestone or event that plaque may be updated if another milestone is achieved. At the approval of the Director City Amenity, the size of the new plaque must remain the same as the original plaque.
- Wording should avoid terminology used in cemeteries and be uplifting. Where applicable the wording would recognise the nominee and their qualities. The final format and wording is to be approved by the Director Parks and City Amenity.
- The size of the plaque is to be 150mm x 100mm for infrastructure and 300mm x 300mm for trees. The Director of City Amenity may approve a variation of the size due to the location of the plaque and the associated infrastructure.
- The material of the plaque is to be to the satisfaction of the Director of City Amenity.
- The City will commit to maintaining the plaque for a period of 10 years.
- The City maintains a register of memorial plaques to notify the next of kin should the need arise. It is up to the applicant to notify the City of any changes in circumstances.
- Tree species to be to the satisfaction of the Director of City Amenity.
- Memorial trees can only be planted during winter months.
- The tree will be maintained by the City using standard arboricultural practices. Should the tree or related plaque be required to be removed, where appropriate the applicant shall be consulted.
